

THE UPSIDE OF DOWN

I'm bound for a place called The Upside of Down

It isn't a city nor is it a town.

It's a chink in the darkness where the light filters in

Or the hint of a smile turning into a grin

I'm searching and seeking Oh! Where can it be?

An astonishing find – it is hidden in me.

The Upside of Down is the yes side of no.

It's just round the corner I'm ready to go.

I'll get there much sooner if I don't hesitate.

PACCUL Encouragement Corner

Written by Maxine Wilson

Monday, 13 January 2014 00:00 - Last Updated Tuesday, 13 October 2020 20:44

Now is the time – before it's too late!

For the Upside of Down will not come into view

If I don't lift my head and decide what to do.